ARE WE THERE YET?

BC Library Conference 2013 | May 9-11

British Columbia Library Conference 2013

Message from the Chair

Welcome to the 2013 BC Library Conference and to our community's exploration of the theme "Are We There Yet?" Our superb keynote speakers – Lev Grossman and Joseph Janes – consider the future of books and library services while recognizing the value of what we've learned from the past. They're joined by our library colleagues and community partners, who have contributed their time to inform and inspire you. Thank you to our many speakers, volunteers, and sponsors who help us make the conference possible, and to the Conference Planning Committee, Program Committee and BCLA staff for helping lead the process. I look forward to seeing all of you at one of our many sessions, at receptions, and among the exhibits, and hearing about your experience.

Christina de Castell, Chair
2013 Conference Planning Committee
